Vaughn Kubiak has over 40 years of experience in global animal health, with a primary focus on development, licensure, and maintenance of global veterinary biologicals. He has helped develop and improve conventional and innovative immunological veterinary medicinal products for all major species during his career. Vaughn has worked for a number of global animal health companies, with positions in R&D, QA/QC, regulatory affairs, product management, and commercial operations. Prior to his retirement from full-time activities in 2019, Vaughn spent the last 17 years with Zoetis Inc., where he held management positions in Regulatory Affairs, Biologicals Process Development, and Biological Analytical Development. During his last role in Zoetis (2009 – 2019), he was responsible for the European, Middle East, and African Biological Regulatory Affairs team in Sandwich, England and then Zaventem, Belgium. Vaughn remains connected to the Animal Health Industry, however, through limited consulting. He holds Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees in Microbiology from the Ohio State University and Emory University, respectively.
